

Fulbright Specialist Program Submission of Interest

A program of the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, the Fulbright Specialist Program pairs highly qualified U.S. Academics and established professional with institutions abroad to engage in two- to six-week project-based exchanges in a range of disciplines. Through these projects, which are conceptualized by the host institution, Fulbright Specialists share their expertise, strengthen institutional linkages, hone their skills, gain international experience, and learn about other cultures while building capacity at their overseas host institutions.

Instructions: This form is divided into three pages, with four sections and a signature confirmation. You must complete all sections and provide a pdf copy of your resume for your candidacy to be considered.

Once you have completed this form, please email the completed form and a .pdf copy of your curriculum vitae or resume to fulbrightspecialist@worldlearning.org with the subject line 'Submission of Interest for Open Project'. You will receive a confirmation email shortly after your application has been successfully received.

Please note that the information provided in this form and in your Resume/CV may be shared with representatives of the U.S. Department of State, U.S. Embassies, Fulbright Commissions, and prospective host institutions for the purposes of evaluating your candidacy for the project you have indicated below.

If you are identified by the host institution as a top-choice candidate for this project, please note that your ability to serve as the Specialist for this project will be contingent upon admission to the Fulbright Specialist Roster, which requires a separate application process. For more information regarding the Roster application process, visit <https://fulbrightspecialist.worldlearning.org/application-specialists/>.
